

The third dose

to boost the immunity of the elderly and some other target groups against COVID-19 and its variants

The Ministry of Public Health started sending appointments for the third dose for people born in 1961 and before (aged 60 and above) and who received the second dose at least six months ago.

1

2

3

New target groups will be announced later on.

No need to register again to get the third dose.